

What is Congregational Sanctuary?

a 90-minute workshop free & open to the public

Congregational Sanctuary is a safe space, traditionally located within a faith community, school, or hospital building, and culturally recognized as “off limits” by law enforcement agents.

Gain a better understanding of what it means to support congregational sanctuary in Washtenaw County!

Coming on behalf of your congregation? Let us know if you'd like to schedule a follow-up presentation for your group!

Thursday August 24th 7 - 8:30 p.m.

Ann Arbor District Library
Downtown Branch
343 S. 5th Avenue

Free - All are welcome!
For more info call 734 663-1870
or email info@icpj.org

Washtenaw Congregational Sanctuary

An interfaith coalition of congregations and unaffiliated individuals, co-led by the Interfaith Council for Peace & Justice (ICPJ) and the Washtenaw Coalition for Immigrant Rights (WICIR), formed in response to intensified and increasingly unjust activities of Immigration and Customs Enforcement.